Mr. Takeshi Kimura,
Agricultural Counselor
to the Washington
Embassy

APR 27 1956
DIVISION OF AGRICULTURE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

REGISTERED

AFFIDAVIT OF TAKESHI KIMURA

I, TAKESHI KIMURA, certify that I am the Agricultural Counsellor to the Embassy of Japan, Washington, D. C. and that in such capacity I have retained the legal services of Hajime William Tanaka, counsellor at law (herein after referred to as counsel), with offices at 1757 K Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C., as special counsel to the Embassy for Agricultural and Marine Products; that in such capacity the counsel has undertaken following duties and services:

1. To render legal counselling services with regard to all legislative and administrative proposals or actions of any nature which would affect in any manner the importation of Japanese marine products with particular emphasis on the Tuna problem. That such legal counsel services are to be rendered with respect to agricultural products when requested by the appropriate Embassy officials provided such services do not interfere with normal work load of the counsel's private practice of law. The Counsel is to determine in consultation with the appropriate Embassy official in determining the reasonableness of such additional request. The counselling services to be rendered are to be submitted in written form accompanying the weekly summary analysis report referred to in the Following paragraph when deemed appropriate by the Counsel or at the request of the appropriate official of the Embassy.
2. To inform appropriate persons of the Embassy staff of all legislative and administrative proposals or actions of any nature which would affect in any manner the importation of Japanese marine products with particular emphasis on the tuna problem. That such information services are to be rendered with respect to agricultural products when requested by the appropriate Embassy officials provided such services do not interfere with normal work load of the counsel's private practice of law. The Counsel shall determine in consultation with the appropriate Embassy official in determining the reasonableness of such additional request. Information is to be supplied in analyzed form which will enable the appropriate officials to form a quick familiarity with the more important issues involved. These are to be supplied in a weekly summary analysis form with the exception that where urgency requires such information is to be supplied as soon as practicable in the form of an interim report.

That in consideration for the foregoing services to be rendered the Embassy has agreed to pay counsel a legal fee of $300.00 payable monthly for a period of one year terminating on March 30, 1957. The first installment of said compensation is to be paid retroactively as of April 1, 1956.

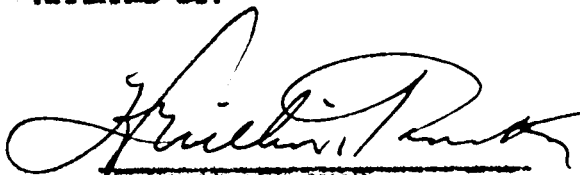

The affiant further states that an understanding has been reached with the Counsel that the above compensation of $300.00 per month is to be a legal fee and does not include extraordinary out-of-pocket expenses incurred by said Counsel including but not limited to travel expenses and purchases of special reference works. It has been understood that the counsel will consult with the Embassy regarding any extraordinary expenses before the same are incurred, and upon submission of vouchers for the said extraordinary expenses, the Embassy will reimburse Counsel.

I certify the above to be true in every respect.
